The Book of John

Lesson 7 Value

Return pages 6 & 7 only

Read John 2: 12-25

John Chapter 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. Now notice that at this early stage in the Lord's ministry – what is going on that is not happening later? His brethren are still with Him. The family did not remove themselves quietly from Him until He starts declaring that He is the Son of God.– but at this point and time, that had not happened yet.

John 2:13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, (Passover was the remembrance of the deliverance from Egypt; when the blood of the lamb was slain and the blood was put on the doorposts and Israel was delivered.) And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

Remember where John starts, Malachi has just ended. I know it is 400 years. The reason nothing is written for 400 years is because nothing changed for 400 years. When Malachi wrote about the feasts of the Lord having been perverted and corrupted; they had been turned into a charade. They were nothing more than a money making operation for the priesthood and the Levites, and God would have nothing to do with them. In Leviticus, the Passover, Pentecost and Preparation these were called feasts of the Lord. John 5:1 ... there was a feast of the Jews. John 6:4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews... John 7:2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. John 11:55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand... John 19:42 ...because of the Jews' preparation day. Do you see what is happening in John? God is not in them. You can see already that this nation is going to have to choose between Jesus Christ and their feast days. Passover is yours – the Lamb of God is mine! What is it going to be?

Later Jesus is going to walk out of the temple. In the Old Testament He says, my house is called a house of prayer. When He walks out of that temple for the last time He says, behold your house is left unto desolate. If you do not want me, have the house. What good is the house without me? You can have it. He did the same thing with these feasts. You want the feasts but you do not want me – fine! They are your feasts. You can have them; I am not in them anymore, saith the Lord

Now, in John 2:14 you have not only, the cattle dealers and sellers of doves, but money changers. How would you like to walk in at church and in the vestibule or the lobby of the church is like a stock yard? You can understand that. But the idea was you were supposed to bring your animal and offer something that was dear to you. Something of value to you and give it to the Lord. Well now they have this worked out where if you have to do the sacrifice, you just go to the Temple buy the sacrifice when you get there. It ceased to be an act of personal worship and sacrifice towards the Lord and it became a mere commercial activity. That does not sound unusual to any of us, does it? That is where we are in our religious world today.

Every Jew had to pay a one half shekel annual tax to the temple treasury. This is interesting to me, this could be paid in only sacred currency – that is no foreign coin was accepted because it would have an emblem of submission to an alien king. So the Pharisees and the Scribes and the Jews that ran the temples said, “you have to bring a half shekel; it has to be Hebrew money because we do not want Caesar's image coming into our temple, it has to be Hebrew money." So just before you enter the Temple, they have the money changers who are swapping money like in an airport going to a foreign country or crossing a border. They are exchanging currency there. Caesar's money for Hebrew money. There are piles of money all over the place.

Here are these Jews – now think about it. They did not want a foreign coins coming into the temple because it would pollute the place, but they will crucify the Son of God and think nothing of it. The changers for those people from remote parts of the empire were Roman coins in replace for the shekel were sitting here in this gateways or these entry ways to the temple. Deuteronomy 14:25 says Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: That is a cross reference. Here is the situation. Jesus walks in there and He looks at this thing and it is not what it is supposed to be. They have turned the worship of God; they have turned the Passover memorial into a marketing scheme and into a money racket. You cannot imagine it unless you have been to a Christian rock concert or to a paid seminar convention. It is just a big money racket.

The Bible says in John 2:15, And when he had made a scourge of small cords, Let us stop right here – I want you to think about something. The reason the Lord tells me not to be angry and sin not, (deal with that anger. Do not let the sun go down upon thy wrath. (Ephesians 4:26) is because my tempter, unrestrained by God, will control me. God controlled His tempter! He used it! He used His wrath; He used His anger, but never out of control. He obviously caused excessive damage, and yet no one laid a hand on him.

Looks to be the same scenario as John 2, this is God. He walks into a wedding. He takes charge. Nobody questions Him! He walks into the temple and runs these guys out of business and nobody even attempts to stop Him, Why? He is God! You would think that about fifty of them would jump him and beat his brains in and drag him out dead, It's incredible! He is Samson, He is Joshua, He is Gideon, all rolled into one! He is the lion of the tribe of Judah. When He rises up from crouching down, you better be out of the way, because He is going to hurt you. He can give you a drink if you are thirsty; or He can give you a whipping if you need one. Right here in one chapter.

John 2:15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, He is a real man, a role model ...and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; Now, the application. Did not Jesus come to save the lost sheep of the house of Israel? There are some sheep in that place that are in bondage to the religious system and the religious leaders of Israel and they are going to die under that bondage. Jesus came in there and set them free. There are some oxen in there. They are not sheep; they are just common servants, might be Gentiles but nevertheless they are going to die under bondage to those Jewish religious leaders and that legal system and Jesus just set them free. Do you know what is supposed to happen to those animals on Passover? They are supposed to die! Do you know what Jesus just did? He just went in there and delivered them from their death sentence. I am telling you the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost. (Luke 19:10)

John 2:16,17 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. If God's house from one end of this earth to the other, if it was not a place of merchandise, there would be a lot less criticism in Christianity and lot more people saved. And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. It would be great if all of us could say that we were so zealous for God that it consumed us. That sure would be something. Here is a note from Psalm 69 it is quite a crossroads in the Old Testament. Psalm 69:9 is quoted in John 2:17 and Romans 15:3. Psalm 69:4 is quoted in John 15:25. Psalm 69:21 is quoted in John 19:28. Psalm 69:22 is quoted in Romans 11:9-10. Psalm 69:25 is quoted in Acts 1:20. Sounds like a pretty important passage.

John 2:18. Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? “How about the sign that I just whipped your back side!” They were not content with that. Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Now, I want you to notice as we go through John, at how many times Jesus tries to teach a spiritual truth and the people He is talking to can only think of the physical and so they miss what He is trying to teach. Jesus says, Destroy this temple, [Do you remember how we miss things in the Bible because we know the Bible so well? Think about this. If you are standing in the temple and you say, show us a sign and Jesus says, destroy this temple, what are you going to think about? You are going to think about the building; you can understand why their minds went their. and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? Now here is what is interesting. If you have a red-letter Bible (which sometimes helps and sometimes does not), He does not answer that. He made the statement; they asked a follow-up question and He did not give them an answer! He just left it there.

Think back to chapter one. Why did He not give them an answer? Why did He not give Pilate an answer? Why did He talk to Nicodemus all night long? He tried to give them light; they did not want light; so they do not get anymore. He tried to give Nicodemus light. Nicodemus wanted light; He gave him more. You are going to see this happening all through the book of John. John is about light and darkness. If God gives you a little light and you do not receive it, you do not get anymore light. All they had to do was say “what do you mean?” But they did not say, “what do you mean?” They went in on the attack! Nicodemus said, “how can a man be born a second time?” He is inquiring! These guys are saying, you have to be kidding – they showed no belief. They were showing scorn and received no answer. He cut them off right there. So this principle holds – you get a little light, put faith in that light, you get some more light. Put faith in that light, you will have more light. You get a little light. You reject that light, you will stay in the darkness.

John 2:21 But he spake of the temple of his body. Lets look at some places where your body is called a temple. First Corinthians 6:19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? You are the temple of the Holy Ghost. There are a lot of different names for the body in the Bible. A house, a tabernacle, a vessel, a temple – but they all have to do with just a place where somebody lives and a place where somebody resides. So what is Jesus saying? Now – remember, go back, because this happens in another place. What did they ask? Show us a sign. What did Jesus say? Look at it again

John 2:19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. He said I will rise up, So they asked Him again in Matthew 12. Shew us a sign. What did He say? No sign but Jonah. As Jonah was three days... So, the only sign the Lord ever offered to dishonest inquirers was His resurrection. John 2. “How are you going to build this temple again?” “In three days, when I rise from the dead, don’t forget me.” That is the only sign you are going to get!

John 2:22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. What a great statement there! What does that tell you about the Old Testament in verse 22? It's the word that Jesus said and the scripture! So it is well prophesied in the Old Testament about these matters.

John 2:23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, And needed not that any should testify of man: This explains (and I don't have all the references) but you can just remember this verse and use them to write it in the margins of your Bible. Do you remember all the times when Jesus would tell somebody that He just worked a miracle for them; or He would do something wonderful for them and then He would say, do not go tell anybody... just keep it to yourself... do not noise this abroad? This explains why. And when Jesus rose from the dead, He told His disciples, "Listen fellows, I know you are excited about this thing. But I want you to tarry at Jerusalem." Why? Because Jesus knew if I do not give those men the Holy Ghost, they will give the story out all twisted up and it will get perverted. So He said, "fellows, look, I am so glad that you want to tell the world but you just wait until I send the Holy Spirit." Why did He say that? Because He knew what was in man. If man goes out to testify without the Holy Spirit, it is liable to be improper. Now we see many cases where people went and testified and good things happened. The woman at the well and so forth. But the principle behind Jesus saying in those many cases, I would rather that you say is in the spirit so the story stay's clear and true, without the Holy Spirit I cannot really trust you to tell it right.

Not only that, And needed not that any should testify of man: Why? Well, He is there! Let me do it guys! Give me three and half years to establish who I am and then you can go out and repeat the good news of what I have done and what I have said. Let me build the foundation, there will be plenty for you to do later – but let me build the foundation! That is the principle here.

Now, end of verse 25, end of chapter 2, for he knew what was in man. That is a vital piece of information because that is an attribute of God. I have met people that think they know what you are thinking and "I know what you meant by that... I have the gift of discernment..." and all that; but honestly, I do not know what you're thinking right now, I do not know what is in your heart. You could be married to somebody for forty years and you do not fully know what is going on inside of them.

But the Bible says, he knew... he knew what was in man. How many times in the gospels can you remember where Jesus turned to someone and responded upon what they were thinking? Luke 7:39 I can imagine I would of been a bit in shock if I just thought that this woman was a sinner and the next statement out of Jesus' mouth was that of a parable asking me the reasoning behind what I just thought. You know that would really put you at a discomfort level you have never have known before.

Now, turn to Jeremiah chapters 17 and 20. Jeremiah 17:9-10 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. He says in verse 9, who can know the heart. Verse 10. I the LORD, (capital letters), Jehovah, I know the heart. John 2:25 says He knows what is in man. That is an attribute of God. It is a statement of His deity. Jeremiah 20:12. But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause. Jeremiah says the Lord sees the heart. Compared with what Jesus just said in John 2 the end of verse 25. We are talking about the same person again.

Here is a list of some other references where the same statement is made about God seeing or knowing what is in man. First Samuel 16:7. First Chronicles 28:9. Matthew 9:4. Mark 2:8. John 6:64. John 16:30. Acts 1:24. Revelation 2:23. God knows the heart. God searches the reins and the heart. Now what is good about if you take all those references, if you have an Old Testament statement, I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, and you go to Revelation 2 and Jesus says, that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: - it is pretty clear that the Bible is teaching that Jesus Christ is the God of the Old Testament manifested in the flesh. So those all make very good proof texts as you cross-reference them for the deity of Christ.

Let me just add a thought here as touching the Lord in God's anger in John 2 when He made that scourge and drove them from the temple. I certainly understand that it was necessary for the Jews scattered around the world to make such exchange of money; I certainly understand and realize that to travel such long distances bringing their animals with them would have been well nigh impossible. But the anger of the Lord is a result of the fact that for four hundred years since the days of Malachi they had made no attempt whatsoever to correct the sins and the wrongs for which Malachi had rebuked them and as a result they were not only still under Gentile dominion, they were not only scattered to the four corners of the earth as God promised they would be if they rebelled against His word and against His law. But they were obviously quite content with this situation. They had chosen to submit themselves to Roman rule and bondage rather than to submit themselves to the word of God; they had chosen to be scattered among the Gentiles rather than to repent and enjoy God's prophesied return of His people to their land! And His anger was not directed at the exchange of money per se or the purchase of animals per se, His anger was directed at a nation that would rather be wrong than right, that would rather be slaved than free and that continued with their pretense when they were worshipping a God whose word they despised and whose commandments they ignored. And that was the source of His anger and it is quite justified giving the circumstances of the case.
