PRAYERLESSON 6

return pages 5 & 6

"How Important is Prayer in My Life?"

Someone once said that a Christian is only as strong as his prayer life. There is a great deal of truth in this because prayer is simply your direct communication to God. When you read the Bible. God speaks to you and when you pray; you speak to GOD. Your personal relationship with THE LORD JESUS CHRIST cannot grow without proper communication.

The purpose of this lesson is to acquaint the individual with the basics of a proper prayer life so that these lines of communication can be open and effective in his life.

I. What is the purpose of prayer?

- a. It is NOT to move God for you or change His mind; it is for you to be conformed to His will.
- b. A proper prayer life results in peace of heart and mind.

Philippians 4:6-7

c. To draw you close to God so He can prove His sufficiency for every need.

1. God is active in every detail of your life, and He knows exactly what you need even before you ask. Matthew 6:8
2. God sometimes allows needs to come into your life so He can draw you to Him to meet with Him. Psalm 50:15
3. The most dangerous time in your life is when every single need is met, and you have need of nothing - including God.

Revelation 3: 16-17

4. God uses those needs to draw you to a place where He can bless you and reveal to you that your only real need is the Lord Jesus Christ and His grace. The classic example of this tremendously important principle is Paul's thorn in the flesh.

II Corinthians 12.7-10

5. This is why it is absolutely essential to give thanks in everything, including and especially the needs and difficult times of your life.

I Thessalonians 5:18

6. This is also why it is absolutely essential to develop a consistent prayer attitude so that your first reaction to a difficult moment is to go to God in prayer.

I Thessalonians 5:17

II. How do I pray?

A. First, Romans 8: 26-27 makes it clear that we don't always know how to pray or what to pray for. That is why the Holy Spirit who lives inside you intercedes for you in prayer.

B. But there are some basic guidelines.

1. Pray always - develop a lifestyle of prayer.

Thessalonians 5:17, Luke 18:1

2. Don't repeat the same words over and over again.

Matthew 6:7

3. Talk to the Lord as a friend. He is your friend!

John 15:13-14; Exodus 33:11; Proverbs 18:24

4. Realize that you have DIRECT access to God personally. You do not need to go through another human to talk to God.

I Timothy 2:5; Ephesians 2:18

C. Keep your basic relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ the number one priority in life. John 15:7

D. Some things, which will hinder your prayer life, are:

1. Unconfessed sin. Isaiah 59:1-2; Psalm 66:18

2. An unforgiving spirit. Matthew 6:14-15

3. Bitterness toward your mate (as well as others). 1 Peter 3:7
4. Not asking. James 4:2
5. Asking with selfishness or other wrong motives. James 4:3; Proverbs 21:13
6. Insensitivity to the Word of God. Proverbs 28:9

III. There are several basic types of prayer, according to 1 Timothy 2:1. Some of them are:

A. Praise – verbally recognizing who what God is. worshipping Him because of His character and attributes. Psalm -34: 1; Psalm 50: 23

B. Thanksgiving - expression of gratitude for personal blessings in your life or the lives-of others dear to you. Acknowledging specific answers to prayer. Psalm 100:4; 1 Thessalonians 5:18

C. Confession,- agreeing with the Holy Spirit when he points out areas of our life that are not pleasing to God. Admitting to our sin rather than covering it up or ignoring it. 1 John 1:9; Proverbs 28:13.

D. Intercession - specific prayers on behalf of the needs of others Romans 1:9; 1 Samuel 12:23

E. Petition/Supplications – Specific prayer regarding the needs and concerns in your own life. Matthew 6:11

IV. Keep track of your prayer requests.

A. Making a list will help you remember what to pray for. Otherwise, your prayer life will not be consistent.

B. Keeping a list of answered prayers is tremendously important to reinforce our faith in God's ability to answer prayer.

V. Basic Questions.

A. Does God answer all my prayers ?

Yes, but not always the way you may want him to, or at the time you want Him to. As we learned in Lesson one God is your Heavenly Father and all His ways are perfect. There will be times when in his infinite wisdom, the best answer to prayer will be “NO” or “NOT YET.” In those times, simply trust Him

B. How important is it to pray for others?

1. Paul prayed for others continually: (Romans 1:9) and requested prayer on many occasions. Hebrews 13:18; II Thessalonians 3:1
2. Samuel said it was against God not to pray for others. 1 Samuel 12:23.
3. An example of effectual prayer for others is how a preacher from England named George Mueller prayed for the salvation of several people for up to 60 years. When he died, some were still lost. However, there were some saved at his funeral, and many were saved within the next year. Eventually all of them came to know the Lord.
4. Keep at it. The full results of your prayers will never be known completely in this life.

C. When should I pray ?

We should always be in an attitude of prayer and can feel free to pray at any time in any situation. However, we should also set aside a specific time each day when we regularly meet with God in prayer. This time should be given the highest priority in our scheduled planning. There is nothing more basic nor more important in our Christian life than communication with our Heavenly Father.
